$10,000 Cook-Off

Port Dock 7

“The Battle at the Bay with the Catch of the Day”

Call for Fishing Vessel Culinary Teams!

“You can catch! Can you cook?”

One of the most extraordinary cook-off events in the United States as it's fishing vessel versus fishing vessel in the ultimate battle for culinary glory and $10,000 cash!

No Entry Fee!

Seafood provided by the Oregon commodity commissions!

Gift card to cover your team's recipe ingredients!

Commercial F/V's prepare their best wild seafood dish to be judged by a guest panel, plus a People's Choice award. Vessels can be represented by crews, family or friends. Each vessel team will come up with a recipe to enter (in their fish catch specialty). This is an amateur cook-off. No professional cooks or chefs!

Note: If you cannot find a team, one will be found by the producing committee to represent your vessel (they will keep any prize money).

The four commodity commissions will sponsor and each vessel team can pick their seafood to cook in one of the cook-off categories: Trawl, Crab, Albacore & Salmon. Each category will offer $2,500 in prize money from the panel of judges and a People's Choice award with five competing teams in each division.

Each team to receive their seafood (if available) from the Commissions plus a gift card to purchase their supplies. Serving cups, utensils, napkins, etc. will also be supplied.

Teams are asked to serve 350+ two-three ounce samples for the paying public to taste . Teams will be required to provide their own set up (awnings, tables, etc.) to fit in a 20' x 20' space. You will be required to provide your own cooking sources (no electricity).
